So You're a New Webelos Den Leader

I Signed Up; What's Next?

Now that you are registered as a Webelos den leader, you will receive Scouting magazine, which includes Cub Scout Program Helps and other information to assist you as a leader. Ask your Cubmaster to furnish you a copy of the current Cub Scout Program Helps to use until your subscription begins. These steps will get you started:

1. Complete Fast Start training for Webelos den leaders. Your pack leadership (pack trainer) will facilitate this video-based training, or you can complete the training online at www.scouting.org. Youth Protection training for all Scouting volunteers is available through your local council Web site.

BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA®

2. Begin reading the Cub Scout Leader Book. (To start right away, you may need to borrow a copy briefly; until you can get your own.) This book describes your role as a Webelos den leader and will give more information on the following steps.
3. Get acquainted with your Cubmaster and pack trainer. These leaders will see that you have the information and material you need to get started off on the right foot.
4. Obtain (or borrow temporarily) the Webelos Leader Guide and begin reading it. This book describes projects that boys can do to complete requirements for Webelos activity badges.
5. Plan your first month's den meetings. This is much easier with the help of the pack trainer, assistant Webelos den leader, den chief (an older Boy Scout or Venturer helper), the Webelos Leader Guide and Cub Scout Program Helps. The key to success is "KISMIF" (Keep It Simple, Make It Fun).
6. Get acquainted with the families of the boys in your den. Hold a family orientation meeting. The Cub Scout Leader Book has a recommended agenda. You will be needing the families' help, so get to know them early.
7. Get acquainted with the boys in your den. Establish a den code of conduct so that they will know what you expect of them. See the Cub Scout Leader Book for details.
8. Ask your Cubmaster to help you secure a Webelos den chief. Give your den chief meaningful responsibilities right away.
9. Obtain and begin wearing the Cub Scout leader uniform as soon as possible. It is attractive, comfortable, and suitable for all Cub Scout meetings and activities. Wearing the uniform properly is important in setting a good example for the boys. Your Cubmaster or pack trainer can tell you where to obtain the uniform and insignia.
10. Attend the monthly planning meetings held by your pack. These meetings are led by the pack committee chair and the Cubmaster, and are where pack plans are made.
11. Attend the monthly district Cub Scout leaders' roundtable. You will receive many good program ideas and become acquainted with Webelos den leaders from other packs, who will share ideas and experiences with you. Your Cubmaster or pack trainer can tell you when and where the roundtable meets.
12. Attend Cub Scout leader basic training as soon as possible. There are two components to this training: Webelos Den Leader Specific Training, a specialized session to help you successfully plan a fun and exciting den program, and This Is Scouting, which is attended by leaders in all program areas. These will give you the foundation you need to become an effective and successful leader. Every boy deserves a trained and qualified leader. Your Cubmaster or pack trainer can give you information about training sessions.

Don't hesitate to ask for help. There are many people who want to help you provide the finest possible Cub Scout experience for the boys in your den.

By the time you have completed these steps you will be well on your way to becoming a successful Webelos den leader.

You, the Webelos Den Leader

You were selected as a Webelos den leader and approved by the pack committee because of your interest in helping boys. By making the commitment to serve as a Webelos den leader, you have accepted the following responsibilities.

- Plan and carry out a year-round program of activities for the Webelos den to achieve the purposes of the Cub Scout program.

- Lead the Webelos den in its participation at the monthly pack meetings.
- Work in harmony with the other den and pack leaders.
- Cooperate with the Cubmaster and pack committee in recruiting new boys.
- Help orient the Webelos den chief and guide him to work with the Webelos Scouts.
- Use Scouting and Boys' Life magazines and the Webelos Leader Guide as sources of program ideas and information.
- Collect dues and turn them in to the pack secretary/treasurer.
- Encourage boys to earn the advancement awards. Keep accurate records, and see that Webelos Scouts are appropriately recognized for their achievement.
- Instill Scouting's spirit and moral values through personal example, ceremonies, and meaningful activities such as goodwill and conservation projects.
- Work with the pack committee to establish a good relationship with neighborhood Boy Scout troops. Try to graduate every Webelos Scout into a troop.
- Ask qualified persons, including adult family members of Webelos Scouts, to serve as activity badge counselors.
- Encourage adult family members to help plan and carry out Webelos den overnight campouts and other outdoor activities.
- Help the den earn the National Den Award.
- Establish good working relationships with den families, taking advantage of their skills and talents.
- Take part in the annual pack planning conferences and the monthly pack leaders' planning meetings.
- Follow the policies of the Boy Scouts of America.

Your Cubmaster or pack trainer will be glad to explain any of these responsibilities that you do not understand.

The Webelos Den Meeting

Webelos den meetings are usually held in the evening or on weekends, once each week, in a home, church, or school. The meeting day, time, and location are set by the Webelos den leader and should be the same each week to prevent confusion. Den meetings last approximately one hour. Leadership responsibilities are shared by the Webelos den leader, assistant Webelos den leader, Webelos den chief, and denner (a selected member of your den.)

The Webelos den meeting program includes the following:

1. Gathering. Conduct an activity to keep those who arrive early busy until time for the opening.
2. Opening. This should be a simple opening ceremony followed by den business such as attendance, dues, den plans, and uniform inspection.
3. Activity badge fun. Include instruction, practice, games, and contests related to the Webelos Scout skills.
4. Preparation. Boys will make equipment and props for the den's part in the pack meeting and make preparations for later outdoor, goodwill, or other special activities.
5. Closing. Make announcements, have a simple closing ceremony, and clean up the den meeting place.

Webelos Outdoor Program

As the Webelos den leader, you will, with the participation of adult family members, want to arrange and organize den overnight camping experiences. This is an important part of the transition from Cub Scouting to Boy Scouting.

What Do You Invest in Cub Scouting?

- One evening or Saturday each week for a den meeting
- One evening each month for the pack meeting
- One evening each month for the Cub Scout roundtable
- One evening each month for a planning meeting with other pack leaders
- Time spent in planning and organizing the den program activities.
- Time spent in Cub Scout leader basic training
- Cost of the Webelos den leader uniform
- The registration fee

This adds up to a small investment, compared to the dividends you will receive. And of course, the more you invest, the more you can expect to receive in return.

What Do You Receive in Return?

- One lively, never-dull evening each week when you have the good fortune to view the world through the eyes of boys
- An evening each month of fun and fellowship with pack families, sharing their pride in their sons' accomplishments
- The privilege of helping to enrich and strengthen families
- A sense of pride as you watch the Webelos Scouts receive recognition for their accomplishments
- An opportunity to share your ideas and experiences with other adults who share your interest in and concern for boys
- A chance to read about subjects that you haven't taken time for in years, and the opportunity to put your ideas into action at den meetings
- The privilege of getting to know boys in your neighborhood a little better and watching them all grow strong in mind and body
- The opportunity to help boys learn good citizenship and to help shape them into men who have strength of character and are sensitive to the needs of others
- A growing admiration for boys, and their growing respect for you as their leader and friend
- A code to live by which will set a worthwhile example for both boys and adults
- The satisfaction of being a member of a worldwide movement, and pride in being publicly identified as a part of this organization by wearing the uniform, which is a visible means of showing that you believe in and stand for its ideals and objectives

You will discover many other dividends that will enrich your life as you dedicate your time, talent, and enthusiasm to Cub Scouting.

All leaders bring to Cub Scouting their own talents and skills, their own backgrounds and interests. Your key to becoming an effective leader is to use your own abilities and interests, along with what you learn about Cub Scouting to plan and conduct the best possible program for the boys. What happens in the life of each boy during the formative years will determine to a great extent the kind of man he will become. What a tremendous opportunity and challenge for you, the Webelos den leader!
